

STEPHENS

COMMERCIAL PAINTING

BACKGROUND

Historically, Arlington Highlands Shopping Center would face challenges whenever businesses move out. They would contact a sign company to remove the signage and then coordinate separately with Stephens Commercial Painting to patch holes and repaint the sign bands. This required managing two separate bids and work schedules, creating inefficiencies during business transitions.

SAVES TIME

Cut project coordination time by up to 50%

COST EFFICIENT

Save 20–30% with bundled services

STREAMLINED PROCESS

One vendor, faster communication, quicker completion.

SOLUTION

Stephens Commercial Painting streamlined the process by offering a complete solution. In addition to patching holes and repainting sign bands, Stephens handles sign removal and electrical capping as part of the service.

RESULTS

By providing a one-stop-shop solution, Arlington Highlands benefits from:

- Lower overall costs by dealing with a single company.
- Simplified communication and project execution.
- Faster turnaround times for business transitions.

Stephens Commercial Painting simplifies sign band maintenance with an all-encompassing solution, making business turns seamless and efficient.
